TAXATION BURDENS DEPLORED

A. E. Roth Speaks at Redwood City Meeting

R.C. PICTURE GOOD

Financial Situation Here Shown to Be Sound

By WILLIAM VIELHAUER

Illustrating his talk with crepe paper ribbons in red and gold—the gold to show the once prosperous condition of the treasury and the red to show the danger point—Almon E. Roth, comptroller of Stanford University and a director of the California State Chamber of Commerce, caused more than one gasp as he cited figures here Wednesday to show how large has grown that Frankenstein monster—"Taxation."

But out of the gloomy picture presented by Roth of conditions in many cities came a cheerful message for the taxpayers of Redwood City that their own city was financially sound and was enjoying the experience of a balanced budget—unique as it may be in these times.

Roth and Col. Frederick Peterson, San Mateo county's new assemblyman, left no doubt in the minds of the several hundred taxpayers who crowded the firehouse auditorium that the legislators are active on the problem of taxation.

To Merge Districts

Much of this legislation, Roth and Peterson revealed, is designed to affect the schools. Simplification and consolidation of county governmental activities also is coming in for full attention.

One school bill, which has the support of the state chamber of commerce, proposes to reduce the number of districts from 3,000 to 281, with the high school district serving as the unit.

This step may not bring a saving in school costs, but will increase efficiency, Roth said.

Another school bill, also sponsored by the state chamber, proposes to place the school budgets in the hands of the county supervisors for "review," with the board given power to order downward revision if thought necessary.

Roth declared the state chamber was not a party to any bill that proposes to reduce salaries and is not "fighting the schools but is advocating measures designed to protect them."

Schools and Politics

Supervisorial review of school budgets should not be objected to on the ground that "this will throw the schools into politics," Roth said. The speaker declared the fact to be that the schools are already in politics and that the school lobby right now is the "greatest in the state."

Roth explained that the purpose of getting the school budget before the supervisors is to make that board a central point to which the taxpayers can turn for relief. As it is now, he said, when complaints are made about the cost of schools, the usual reply from the supervisors is "we have nothing to do with that."

Tenure Law Up

Peterson told of the proposal to do away with the tenure law and to place all teachers on their merits. "The law," he said "is not liked by teachers, school boards or taxpayers."

He also spoke of the proposal to have all school supplies in the various districts purchased through the county buyer.

Citing that but 200 voters out of a registration list of 6,000 in Burlingame bothered to go to the polls at a school election, Peterson told of a bill that proposes to throw open all schools of the city or district as voting places on election day, instead of the usual one poll, so that all voters will have an opportunity to cast ballots.

Peterson indicated that he was not favorable to the Breed bill which proposes a 20 per cent cut in state and county school costs, but none in the district budgets. The Jones bill, which calls for no cut in the state or county, but a 33 per cent reduction in the districts, has met with the assemblyman's favor at the present.

Quarterly Taxes Proposed

The assemblyman also told of bills being introduced proposing a moratorium on interest, limitation of tax penalties to 8 or 10 per cent, and payment of taxes quarterly.

Roth prefaced his remarks with the statement that the public is finally coming to realize "that a government has no money to spend except what it takes from the people."

Bargain Days Due Today And Saturday

"BARGAIN DAYS," Redwood City's outstanding sales event of the year, will be staged today and Saturday, February 17 and 18 by the merchants' division of the chamber of commerce. As a result, no Thrift Day will be held Tuesday, in order that merchants and public alike may prepare for the big semi-annual sales.

Values in merchandise undreamed of, even six months ago, will be thrown on the market at prices that will entice even the most thrifty. Spring markets have already evidenced the fact that prices on all staple goods will be higher and "Bargain Days" will be the last chance before prices rise to secure the ridiculously low prices of the depression period.

Once again the merchants are out to prove to the people of the peninsula that Redwood City stores offer more and better values than any other community and undersell San Francisco on a large percentage of merchandise. Lower rents, lower advertising costs and other factors put the Redwood City merchant in a position to give lower prices.

Shaw, Hinman Head County Industry Body

SAN MATEO, Feb. 13.—Percy J. Shaw, resident of Baywood and general manager of the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company, was elected president of the peninsula industrial conference here Saturday night to succeed Congressman-elect John J. McGrath. Elmore B. Hinman of Redwood City was selected as vice president, and Fred J. Mahr, secretary.

McGrath, one of the founders of the conference, urged the civic leaders to continue the fight for industries on the peninsula, saying that with proper co-operation the plants of Goodyear, Ford and Chrysler could have been won for this area. He urged port development, faster transportation and cheaper water rates as the necessary goals to win industry.

W. H. Crawford, of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, told of San Francisco's interest on the peninsula and the hope that the conference will co-operate to the fullest. T. Louis Chess of San Mateo spoke of the need of developing the peninsula as a unit. Hinman spoke on Redwood City's port project.

Chris Jordan, Belmont mayor, spoke on the Port San Francisco project in that city. Others who took part included J. H. Sullivan, Eugene C. Signarowitz, Richard Fleming, J. Elmer Morrish and others.

McGrath stated that he was leaving for Washington in another week and asked that letters be sent by his constituents keeping him informed on their desires.

Protection Wanted For Relief Clerks

Because of possible danger in which the women clerks at the social service commission offices here are placed particularly at night, Supervisor John W. Poole of Redwood City today had suggested before the supervisors the addition of several male clerks to the staff.

Women at the county social service offices here are often called upon to work late into the night, Poole told the supervisors, and have no protection should any petitioner for relief feel a grevivance and threaten harm.

Supervisor Rosalie Brown, San Mateo, did not believe the board could find funds to pay for hire of additional clerks. The matter was therefore laid over to the meeting of February 20.

Deed to Golf Club Put on File Today

The grant deed from the West Coast Life Insurance Company of San Francisco to the new Millbrae Golf and Country Club covering the former holdings of the Union League Golf and Country Club was filed today in Redwood City with County Recorder T. C. Rice. Cancelled stamps indicate the cost of the property was $133,000.

BELMONT TO PICK WATER DIRECTORS

Five District Board Members' Terms Expire

VOTE MARCH 28

Candidacies Must Be Filed Before Feb. 25

BELMONT, Feb. 15. —Five directors of the Belmont water district will be elected March 28 to fill vacancies created by the expiration of the terms of the original board members, chosen when the district was organized in 1929, it was announced at a meeting of the board here last night.

Directors whose terms expire are Joseph Heartsner, president; L. A. Elsener, Errett Sackett, Waldo J. Marra and Daniel St. George. Other incumbents are H. A. Hyne, who was appointed by the county board of supervisors, and Mayor Chris L. Jordan, who as an ex-officio member represents the city of Belmont.

Nominations for directorships must be filed before February 25, according to Col. Charles N. Kirkbride, attorney for the district.

None of the incumbent directors has announced whether or not he will be a candidate for re-election.

Polling will take place at the Belmont public school from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. Election officers appointed are Mrs. Marcia Whipple, Mrs. Annie Smith, Frederick Martius and Gus Bayreuther.

At last night's meeting an increase in salary from $15 to $30 monthly was requested by Vernon P. Irvin, auditor for the district.

The request of Mrs. F. Harkins, who has purchased 23 acres of the former Baxter property, for water service was referred to Engineer W. W. Hendricks.

Approval by Attorney Kirkbride of a proposal by the board to contribute to a joint insurance policy also covering the other two utility districts in Belmont will be sought.

Elwood Curtis, manager of the water district, reported a profit of $367.72 for January.

Engineer Hendricks was authorized to complete drawings and financial data for water district improvements under the $45,000 bond issue voted in December.

She is survived by her husband, Edward D. Baker and a step-son, Elgin Baker of this city. She also leaves three daughters and two sons living in the East; Mrs. May J. Beaver and Mrs. Osilda Sawyer, both of Minneapolis; Mrs. Lillian Del Coure of St. Paul, Minn.; Emory Jacques of Philadelphia, and Arthur Jacques.

Menlo Park Paving Cost Report Given

MENLO PARK, Feb. 15.—It will cost $4,170 to lay a strip of paving on Hermosa Way, City Engineer Bert J. Mehl told the city council last night in presenting a preliminary report.

This will cost $1.08 per front foot. Property owners had requested the report.

Police Chief Frank Love reiterated at the meeting last night that he would not chase speeders until the city placed some insurance on his car.

Rulings by Swart Upheld on Appeals

During the brief time Judge Swart has been on the bench, six cases have been appealed to the higher courts from his decision. Four of these have been decided upholding his judgment while the two other cases are still pending. This is certainly a splendid record for a new judge. It is something to be proud of.

$15,000 Sought for Part of Livestock Building Site to Show 'Good Faith' of County

San Mateo county must raise $15,000 to buy 15 acres of the proposed 100-acre site for the international livestock exposition building or see the $500,000 project doomed.

This was the warning laid before the board of supervisors Tuesday by C. H. Sooy, San Francisco attorney and one of the directors of the San Francisco-San Mateo county agriculture district formed to finance the project.

Site of the proposed exposition building is in Visitacion valley, with 92 acres in San Mateo and eight in San Francisco. Owners of the property are asking $1500 an acre, but the price can be knocked down to $1000 or even $750, Sooy believes.

Says It Shows Faith

By buying 15 acres and taking an option on 85, Sooy says San Mateo county will show its faith in the project and will convince the state that the exposition building will go through.

The state two years ago voted $250,000, half the cost of the project, but the new legislature threatens to divert this money to some other source, Sooy said.

While not wishing to criticise Mayor Angelo Rossi or the board of supervisors of San Francisco, Sooy said "San Francisco is falling down on the project."

No S. F. Guarantee

San Francisco was to have raised the major portion of the remaining $250,000. It will not at this time guarantee any funds for the project, Sooy indicated.

Supervisor Manuel Francis, Half Moon Bay, questioned whether the board could raise the money.

Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, urged the board at least to go on record asking the state not to touch the $250,000 voted for the pavilion.

The board took the whole matter under advisement until its next meeting, February 20.

2 Mail Sacks Stolen From S. S. F. Truck

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—Two mail sacks were stolen from a mail truck at the Southern Pacific station at 6:45 o'clock last night.

The sacks contained copies of the Enterprise, local newspaper, although the thief is thought to have believed that the contents were of greater value.

Jack Welch, post office employe, drove the mail truck to the depot. He carried the first class mail on his person as he went into the station, and left the two sacks on the truck. The truck was parked near the baggage room.

When Welch returned to the truck to put the mail on the 6:55 train, northbound, he found the sacks missing and the key to the truck gone.

This morning, Postmaster L. G. Hardy found one sack behind an ice storage plant near the depot. It is thought that this was dropped by the thief in his flight, and that he became frightened at the sound of a police siren. A local officer dashed to the scene of the robbery, with his siren wide open, and just at that time, state traffic police were pursuing a speeder through the city.

Federal postoffice agents were here today investigating the crime.

Warrant Issued When Refuse is Dumped Along Bayshore

'WAR' OPENS

Other Arrests Will Follow Violations, Says Manager

Determined to enforce the new city ordinance designed to stop the promiscuous dumping of garbage, in the interests of public health, city authorities today swore to a warrant for the arrest of an offender.

Unemployed men, working under City Engineer C. L. Dimmitt, have been cleaning up vacant lots, streets and channels about the city, removing cans, scrap iron and other refuse. City Manager Ernest Rolison said the city proposes to enforce the ordinance, the need for which was apparent when it was found that approximately only half of the householders are taking garbage service, indicating many are resorting to illegal unsanitary or unsightly methods of disposal.

The charge, which is the same under city collection as it was under a private contractor, is 50 cents per month for one call a week. Every householder is required to take the service unless he or she has othe rlegitimate means of disposal. In such case a permit must be secured from City Health Officer I. C. Drathman.

Formerly all fees went to the private collector but under the new method, Redwood City profits from the service and the income helps reduce the tax rate.

Jerome Horne Succumbs to Heart Attack

ATHERTON, Feb. 13.—Funeral services were held in San Francisco at 3 o'clock today for Jerome ("Jerry") Horne, 74, for two years a caretaker at the J. H. Herbst estate at Atherton and Austin avenues, Atherton, who was found dead on his cabin floor Saturday night.

The gas oven in the kitchen was going at the time and it was first feared that he had been asphyxiated. An autopsy revealed death was caused by a ruptured heart, however. An inquest will be held tomorrow.

Horne was for 20 years in the employe of the Herbst estate, but had lived in Atherton for only the past two years.

Andrew Kopp, another caretaker of the estate, found the body.

Horne's body was removed to the Layng & Tinney chapel here and services were conducted this afternoon in San Francisco.

CITY TAXES IN STEADY DROP HERE

Decrease Over Four Years Has Been 30 Cents

SEEK NEW CUTS

Redwood City's tax rate has averaged a 7½-cent drop each fiscal year during the tenure of office of City Manager Ernest A. Rolison, taxpayers who attended a mass rally in the firehouse auditorium Wednesday were informed.

The city's financial standing at the present moment is excellent, Rolison said, and he declared the city's budget will balance on July 1.

Bonded indebtedness of Redwood City is steadily decreasing and now represents but 15 per cent of the city's possibilities, he said.

Here are the figures presented by Rolison:

Figures Presented

The tax rate has steadily decreased from $1.40 per $100 in 1928-29 to $1.39 (1 cent off) in 1929-30: $1.30 (9 cents off) in 1930-31; $1.30 (same) in 1931-32; $1.10 (20 cents off) in 1932-33.

Taxes for general purposes have varied from 90 cents to 97 cents to 84 cents to 87 cents to 66 cents.

Costs of interest and redemption of bonds have varied from 44½ cents to 33 cents to 36 cents to 33 cents to 34 cents.

Library taxes have varied from 5 mills to 9 mills to 10 mills.

Rolison sees little chance of substantial cuts in the rate this year "but hopes to keep the line horizontal."

Cuts will be possible only in one fund—the 66-cent general tax—and Rolison questioned how that item could be reduced.

The library tax of 10 cents and the interest and redemption tax of 34 cents can offer no substantial relief.

Big Cut Last Year

The general purpose tax was cut from 87 cents last year to 66 cents. This was a 28.4 cents reduction for a total of $32,375.55.

To cut the tax another 20 cents as was done last year and as suggested by the tax group this year, would mean slicing about 25 per cent off the general tax item of $81,519.34, Rolison said. The other items in the budget are $12,254.31 for library purposes, and $38,655.16 for interest and redemption of bonds.

Funds to be raised this year by taxation total $132,428.01 (estimated). The sum of $72,540 has been paid in in the first installment or 54.7 per cent.

If this percentage is maintained, the total tax will be collected. Rolison said expenditures are slightly underspent so that if the income should fall off the budget will be balanced nevertheless.

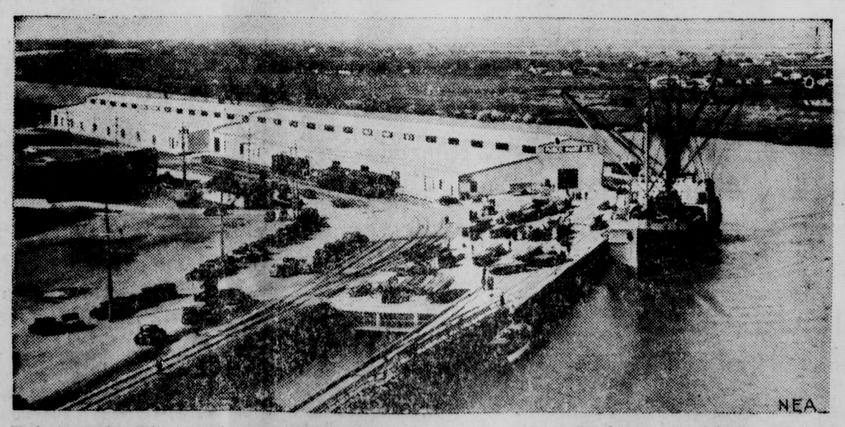
This Is What An Inland City Did!



Unfortunately this is not an aerial photograph of the proposed San Mateo county deep water port at Redwood City. Such port activity as pictured here could once have been recorded by the camera in the early days when Redwood City was flourishing as the shipping point for redwood lumber. The future, too, will perhaps make possible just such a photograph. But for the present we must content ourselves by merely looking at the picture and visualizing it as fitting the local scene.

In fancy the seagoing vessel would be tied up at the municipally-owned 30-acre port site in Redwood creek. The channel would show a portion of the confluence of West Point slough and Redwood creek. In the distance across the channel would be Redwood City and toward the right, San Carlos. The railroad tracks would be a branch of the Southern Pacific (and, in time, Western Pacific) spur running to the Pacific Portland cement plant. The highway would be on city-owned land. The wharves and warehouses would be for use of the public as against private interests.

Departing from fancy this is actually the scene at the new Stockton municipal terminal. The interior California city has dug a channel 26 feet deep and from 100 to 300 feet wide for a distance of 45 miles to bring seagoing ships to its doors. The photograph shows the schooner Daisy Gray with a cargo of lumber from Washington tied up at the municipal wharf. It was the first ocean-going steamer to dock at Stockton and marked the realization of that city's dreams.

What that inland city has done to make itself a seaport should put San Mateo county with its natural harbor at Redwood City to shame!

Valentines? Sure! Pupils Bring Spuds

When the pupils at Lincoln Grammar School brought valentines Tuesday to exchange among themselves, they also brought valentines for the hungry unemployed—in the shape of potatoes.

Each child brought the largest potato he could find at home, and when they were all put together, there were 200 pounds. Miss Adelaide Butts, the principal, turned them over to the city unemployment relief committee.

TAXATION

Of the $45,000,000,000 income produced annually, Roth said $15,000,000,000 is being spent on the support of government. "Economists," he said, "have always held that 20 per cent was the breaking point, but the figure now stands at 33 per cent."

Per capita governmental costs in California have increased from $33.58 in 1915 to $105.90 in 1930, he said.

Citing the huge increase in bonds, Roth said the people are "punch drunk on the question of bonded indebtedness," postponing the day of payment in some instances to 75 years—far beyond the average span of life.

While the United States treasury is not yet bankrupt, Roth said the nation was spending $1,000,000 more per day in the past year than it was earning, thus piling up a deficit of $365,000,000 for the twelvemonth.

"We have increased the cost of government to the point where it ought to and is disturbing us," Roth said.

Governmental bureaus piled one atop another were blamed by Roth for the state of the treasury and he cited how one department takes care of grizzly bears and another the polar bears. In the event of twins of different color, Roth said the bureau of commerce would take care of one bear and the department of agriculture the other.

Government In Business

The federal government, Roth said, is actively engaged in competition with private industry of every description, citing the manufacture of brooms, ice, marine engines, paints and printing as a few activities. He also declared the government was telling the women how to cook and what to wear and performing a host of other services which the public has come to expect.

"We are asking too much of the government and can't afford to have these things done for us," Roth said.

Costs Dropping Here

Roth was followed by City Manager Ernest Rolison of Redwood City who presented a chart showing that Redwood City governmental costs have been steadily dropping in contrast to increases which have occurred elsewhere. These figures are set forth in an accompanying article.

City Councilman Paul McCarthy explained the proposed amendments to the city charter which will make possible the crediting of earnings from municipally-owned utilities to the general fund to alleviate the taxpayers' burden.

T. J. Hallinan, local title company head, who as president of the property owners' division of the Redwood City Real Estate Board presided, introduced Roth as "the best volunteer fireman that Stanford ever had" and "the best president that Rotary International ever had."

"In his office of controller, he presides in a great measure over the destinies of one of our great institutions of learning," Hallinan said of Roth.

Hallinan told of plans for divorcing the property owners group from any connection with the realty board. Another meeting will be held early in March.

Present last night were school trustees, principals, and faculty members; city and county officials, city employes, real estate men, and taxpayers, with Redwood City, San Carlos and Belmont ably represented.

Mystery of Old P. O. Receipts Solved Here

An old handgrip containing receipts for money orders made out in 1902 was found on the Alameda de las Pulgas between Whipple and Edgewood roads Tuesday by two Redwood City youths.

The "J. McE." lettered on the grip was traced to James McElney, San Francisco druggist with offices in the Flood building. McElney told Police Chief C. L. Collins that the grip apparently had been stolen from his home, 416 Floribunda avenue, Burlingame.

The druggist had not missed the grip, however, and did not know if it had contained anything besides the money order receipts.

McElney said the money orders were written to his mother while he was traveling through British Columbia for a drug firm. She lived in Ireland.

Boy Scouts Half Way to Quota Here

With the half-way mark in the Boy Scout finance campaign for Redwood City reached Wednesday in the report of J. E. Morrish that $753.50 has been subscribed in the first week to date, interest in the drive was stimulated by a statement by Mayor William J. Dusel pointing out that more than 200 boys of the community are participating in the scout program.

The Redwood City committee is preparing to complete its $1500 quota during the next week. This community ranks with San Mateo, which reports 49 per cent of its quota, while Burlingame has achieved 38 per cent in four days. South San Francisco subscribed 100 per cent in the first 48 hours.

The Belmont drive, directed by Alexander Morrison, started yesterday. The scout drive at San Carlos will be undertaken by the San Carlos Fire Department under the supervision of Jack Newhall, it was decided at a meeting last night.

Chairman Morrish of the Redwood City committee has called a meeting of the local campaign workers for tomorrow noon at the Cottage restaurant on El Camino Real to check on work done.

In supporting the scout campaign, Mayor Dusel has joined the mayors of other cities in San Mateo county and such individuals as Stuart Edward White, writer of boys' stories, and Capt. Edward Macauley, director of the county relief committee.

VISITOR SUCCUMBS

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Helen Wheeler, 29, wife of G. W. Wheeler, and mother of a small child, died yesterday while visiting relatives at 519 Linden avenue.

Two Important Committees of C. C. Appointed

Appointment of two important chamber of commerce committees was announced today by Manager Howard I. Wood.

Clifton Woodhams is chairman of a committee, to be chosen by him, which will investigate proposed revisions in the city business license ordinance, and conduct hearings on same.

A traffic committee, which will study parking conditions on Broadway, especially west of the railroad, and in the vicinity of the depot, includes S. A. Abrahams, M. F. Hughes, City Manager E. A. Rolison, City Engineer C. L. Dimmitt, D. P. Washburn and W. Hohn.

A Thousand Yours

WHEN you pick up your newspaper and glance over the advertising you quite unconsciously multiply yourself a thousand times.

In half or three-quarters of an hour you can, figuratively speaking, visit every progressive store in town. You virtually poke your head into every department of every department store. You run into the florist's, the confectioner's, the oculist's, the leading groceries, banks, theaters, all the various places that supply the things that make this the twentieth century and life worth the living. Here is a greater choice in clothing, food, furniture, books, pictures, musical instruments, travel, entertainment, opportunity for investment, the service of public utility corporations than any monarch of old could command.

It would easily take a thousand yous, traveling hard all day, to find out for yourself what the advertisements tell you in a few minutes morning or evening.

Advertisements deserve your attention. They deserve your confidence. Without advertising, the prices you would have to pay for many of the necessities you now buy for small change would make a dollar look like a snowball on the kitchen range.

Raymond Long Dies Suddenly While at Job

Taken suddenly ill while at work in Atherton on Monday, Raymond E. Long, 527 Winslow street, was rushed to his home but was dead on arrival. He was the son of Mrs. James Day and the late John H. Long, and was 43 years of age at the time of his passing. He was a native of San Francisco.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma K. Long, and three children, Raymond, John and Dorothy Long. He is a brother of Mrs. Grace E. Williams and Percy E. Long of this city, and Milton H. Long of San Jose. His mother, Mrs. Day, is a pioneer of this community.

Recklessness Brings Arrest Of San Josean

George Lehmann, 32, of 540 South First street, San Jose, well-known garageman, was booked by state traffic police at the county jail early Sunday for reckless driving and investigation after he is asserted to have attempted to take an arresting officer's revolver.

His companion, Edwin Colby, 18, San Jose mechanic, was booked for investigation.

Lehmann, according to Captain Paul Perussina and Trrafic Officer Chester Kreiss, attempted to take Kreiss' revolver while he was being brought to the county jail here.

Colby is accused of attempting to obtain the revolver of State Officer Lloyd Minehan, according to Captain Perussina and Kreiss. Minehan and State Officer Manfred Walzberg stopped beside Captain Perussina's car in Burlingame early Sunday while Kreiss and Perussina were talking to Lehmann and Colby, and the attempt is then asserted to have been made.

Lehmann and Colby had been drinking, Perussina reported.

The traffic captain also reported finding six .45 caliber bullets on the seat of Lehmann's car. Search failed to disclose a gun.

Lehmann secured his release from the county jail on his own recognizance at the request of Police Chief Thomas Burke, San Mateo. Colby was bailed out when Lehmann put up $16 cash. Both will face Justice Gus Risso in Burlingame tomorrow at 10 a. m.

Chris Fiebermitz, 30, truck driver, of 1168 Kansas street, San Francisco, was cited for reckless driving after he is asserted by Perussina to have run two cars off the Bayshore boulevard near Belmont. He will appear at 10 tomorrow before Justice Percy Jackson, San Mateo.

M. Hayes, 57 Cordova street, San Francisco, was also cited for reckless driving.

Lottery Is Raided In North End Town

BAYSHORE, Feb. 15. — Three Chinese were arrested yesterday in a raid of a lottery within the newly created town of Bayshore in San Mateo county. They were the first persons to be arrested in the city.

The raid was staged by Sheriff James J. McGrath, Undersheriff Lawrence Nieri and Constable Silvio Landini. Chinese arrested gave the names of Lee Kim, Lee Sing and Wong Foo. They were released on $200 cash bail.

High Court in Ruling Against Closing of Road

The district court of appeals held today that the old wagon road leading across the Lemos property on the Alpine cannot be barricaded against 20 or more Palo Alto Native Sons who use the road to reach their cabins.

This affirms the judgment of former Superior Judge George H. Buck.

Pedro J. Lemos, Stanford University art instructor and editor, and his wife, Reta, sued James Farmin, E. C. Waterman and H. C. Cobb to quiet title to the road.

Testimony showed it had been used since 1860 and was the only road leading from the Alpine or Haskins Hill road to reach the Native Sons' property. The high court held that the Native Sons had a prescriptive right to use of the road and did not take up the point of necessity.

Spring Races At Tanfo Due 1st of March

Racing will start at Tanforan track for the spring session in the early part of March. Training operations of horses coming to the race meet will begin next week, with the racing strip being thrown open to trainers Monday, February 20. The exact date of the opening of the racing session will be announced as soon as the physical properties are in order for the sport to begin.

Communications from horsemen indicate they desire to race at Tanforan at a date as early as possible. Inquiries have been coming in at the office of the Pacific Coast Breeders' Association as to the opening date of the spring meet, and all queries indicate "the earlier the better."

The racing strip at Tanforan will be prepared immediately for the horses that will be galloping next week.

Way to Dispose Of Garbage Now Sought by S. F.

With the Bayshore fill and cover method under protest by San Mateo county, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors today instructed Chief Administrator Cleary of San Francisco to present a definite recommendation for a permanent method of garbage disposal.

Cleary promised action in 60 days. He said he would study a new type of incinerator and also the fill and cover method as used by Portland and Seattle.

District Attorney Edmund Scott, who is prosecuting one of the San Francisco garbage men for violating the Bayshore sanitary code, said the trial will be held as soon as Judge R. R. Syer of San Jose can arrange an open

Motorist Cited After 80 M.P.H. Chase by Police

Frank A. Young, 2218 Hale drive, Burlingame, a roofing contractor, was cited for reckless driving by State Officer Lloyd Minehan at 7:40 o'clock Tuesday after a chase on the Bayshore highway with the speedometers registering 80 miles an hour.

State Officer Manfred Walzberg was with Minehan in the chase. Both were on motorcycles.

Young will face Justice of the Peace Edward Farrell at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in South San Francisco.

MADRID LETTER

By WILLIAM H. LANDER
United Press Staff Correspondent

MADRID (UP)—Energetic measures are being taken by the Spanish government to prevent the possibility of a railroad strike breaking out early in 1933, while the minority which favors the strike is doing everything possible to justify its attitude.

The young Republic has had a lot of trouble and all sorts of labor conflicts on its hands since its proclamation on April 14, 1931, but nothing on the magnitude of a nation-wide railroad strike. It is therefore particularly anxious to have the movement for the strike called off before it may be too late.

Private Enterprises

Railroads in Spain in theory are private enterprises. They were all built through obtaining concessions, which ultimately expire, and the roads would then under normal circumstances revert to the ownership of the government. But during the World War the railroads found themselves in financial trouble, and appealed to the government for financial aid. Ever since then the government has been pouring millions and millions of pesetas into the railroads, so that practically everything new was paid for with government money.

The situation was complicated greatly by the second phase of the dictatorship of Gen. Primo de Rivera, when all sorts of new railroad construction enterprises were started. As a result, Minister of Public Works Don Indalecio Prieto has been running the railroads as if they were government enterprises. He has appointed a government representative on the board of directors of each railroad, and this representative has the power to veto any decision of the board. All accounts of the railroads have been inspected, and furthermore Prieto has been waging a campaign against the habit of giving away free passes. In the old days as many as a million passes were issued a year; now the number has been reduced, but still is very large.

Two Big Railroads

The two big railroads in Spain are the Norte de Espana (North of Spain) which has 3808 kilometers of lines, and the M.Z.A. or Madrid-Zaragoza-Alicante (Southern Railroad) which has 3670 kilometers. Other important railroads are the Andaluces (in Andalusia); the Oeste (West Railroad, which connects with the Portuguese lines) and a group of smaller lines.

The railroad employes number between 130,000 and 140,000. The majority of them belong to the Sindicato Nacional Ferroviario, which is affiliated with the Union General de Trabajadores, the Socialist labor organism. The minority, which amounts to about 20,000 to 25,000 employes, belongs to the Federacion Nacional de la Industria Ferroviaria which is an organism of the Confederation Nacional del Trabajo, the Syndicalist organism.

The Syndicalists have been talking about the strike since late in November. In one of the last sessions of the Cortes before the Christmas holidays, Prieto declared that any railroad strike must be considered as a "revolutionary strike," and that whoever participated would lose his job.

Roosevelt to Take Simple Oath March 4

WASHINGTON (UP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt will become the 31st president of the United States at the precise moment on March 4 when he recites after Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes the solemn oath of office prescribed in the constitution.

This brief and simple act is the oldest of the inaugural ceremonies. The oath is of the same simplicity that marks the constitution.

Since the early days of the republic it has been administered on the broad east portico of the capitol.

The Simple Oath

As the official company gathers on the pillared portico, the president-elect, facing the chief justice, places his hand on the Bible and slowly repeats the words:

"I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States."

Numerous traditions surround the brief ceremony. When the incoming president places his hand on the Bible it is at a spot previously designated by him. When he kisses the Bible afterward it is at the same designated spot.

Text for Address

Sometimes, as did President Hoover, the inaugural address, delivered just afterward, is based on an excerpt from this same section.

It was formerly customary to use the Bible belonging to the supreme court. President Harding, though, chose the one used by George Washington which is in the possession of the Masonic Lodge in Alexandria, Va., to which Washington belonged.

President Theodore Roosevelt started the practice of furnishing his own Bible. He had been promised one as the gift of Afro-American bishops, but when the tome was delivered to the capitol it was found to weigh almost 500 pounds, entirely too large for the supreme court clerk to hold. Roosevelt substituted his own.

President Coolidge used the Bible which his mother gave him as a youth.

No Protection

Despite sometimes inclement weather the oath taking ceremony has been without any protection from the elements other than the high roof of the portico.

An exception was made in the case of President Taft. A long range weather forecaster had promised blue skies and spring-like weather but the day before the ceremony the weather changed. A blizzard blew down from the northwest. On the night before the inaugural the temperature tumbled.

Pennsylvania avenue was sanded to prevent the horse-drawn carriages from slipping. Laborers attempted to wash the snow from the grandstands, but the water froze. The Taft ceremonies were moved to the senate chamber.

Heating Equipment

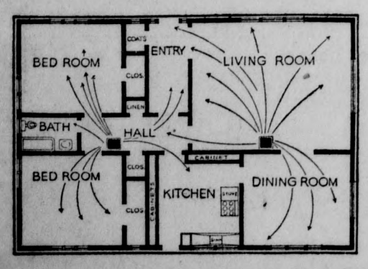
HAVE you ever realized that when you add the comfort of a gas heating system to your home you are adding value to the home you live in?

Today at the small cost for which you can have the comfort of whole house warmth from gas appliances represents one of the finest investments you can make.

It makes no difference whether your home has a basement or not, you can have circulated heat from easily installed, low-cost, gas heating equipment. The gas floor furnace for example, requires no basement — no extensive system of warm-air pipes. Gas floor furnaces are installed just below floor level and only an attractive grill shows in the room.

Gas floor furnaces have solved the furnace heat problem of many small homes. Operating costs of these gas furnaces too, are exceptionally low. The local office of the P. G. & E. can show you what other residents in your locality are paying for floor furnace heat. See your local gas appliance dealer or a representative of this company today.

Natural Gas will maintain this "Comfort Zone" 65° at low cost



The floor plan to the left shows a typical floor furnace installation in a small home. These compact heating units rapidly circulate an abundance of warm air and are capable of heating several rooms. Menlo Park

In the St. Francis Hospital on Tuesday a baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Optendy. The mother is the proprietor of the Lucielle Shop on the highway and is known to all her friends as Lucielle. The youngster weighs seven pounds. Mrs. Emma J. Stribling, an aunt, is very proud of her tiny niece.

Several Menlo Park women are attending the regional conference of the National Council of Catholic Women in San Francisco this week. Among them are Mrs. C. A. Devol, who is to be a hostess tomorrow and Thursday; Mrs. C. Maloney, Mrs. Catherine Derry, Mrs. A. W. Gale, Mrs. Martin McCarthy, and Mrs. John Sullivan. The conference opened this morning with high mass in St. Mary's Cathedral. Other sessions will be held at the Fairmont Hotel.

Dorothy Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Bush of Menlo Park, celebrated her 11th birthday Sunday. Among the guests at the birthday dinner were Mrs. Sine Hartmann, Miss Victoria Hartmann, Miss Mae Hartmann, and Mrs. Christine Eskelsen, all of Berkeley. Mrs. Hartmann is the grandmother of the guest of honor.

Mrs. Agnes Graham, sister of J. H. Sullivan and Thomas Sullivan of Menlo Park, passed away last Thursday at Mary's Help Hospital in San Francisco following a long illness. The deceased was interred in the family plat at Santa Clara last Saturday. She was a pioneer teacher of Oakland for many years. She was a sister of the lte Sister Mary Margaret of Oakland, who was also an instructor. Mrs. Graham was a devout and holy woman who spent the latter portion of her long life of seventy-one years in doing good in aiding and assisting the poor.

Mrs. Lillian C. Dunn of this city has brought suit in the superior court of the county for an interlocutory decree of divorce from her husband, Paul Dunn, on the grounds of cruelty. The Dunns were married at Reno last June. Plaintiff asks to resume her former name of "Chew."

Chief Cuff of the fire department has announced that a new telephone number has been assigned to the department. It is Palo Alto 4142. This number is for fire only, the business telephone remaining Palo Alto 4848. The old numbers were Palo Alto 4111 for Menlo Park-Atherton and Palo Alto 6111 for East Palo Alto and North Palo Alto.

A butcher shop and delicatessen store is to be installed in the W. E. Dale grocery on March first with a full line of both commodities. A refrigerated car will deliver meat to every customer's home. The proprietor promises the very best of service.

The Native Sons installed officers for the term last evening. All the old officials were re-elected and will serve a second term. After the ceremony refreshments wre served and a good time enjoyed by the members who recounted the past history of the parlor.

H. E. Hallett has closed his meat market and food store on the highway to devote all his attention to his other stores in Redwood City.

Mrs. Cora Parker motored to Carmel last Friday, returning to her home in Menlo Park on Monday.

Menlo Parlor Native Daughters of the Golden West held its business meeting followed by a Valentine party Monday evening. Grace Berry and Catherine Derry won prizes in the jig-saw puzzle contest. Refreshments were served in a Valentine decorated room. Mary Maloney was hostess to twenty members. A homeless baby was "adopted" for the period of six months at least. Tonight the parlor will hold the last of the series of card parties sponsored by the parlor. The party is to be held in the Central school.

Mayor and Mrs. W. H. Weeden motored to Auburn on Friday last. On the following day the mayor was the guest at luncheon given by the miners' representatives from 21 counties. Each guest was given a small piece of gold ore. After the lunch a tour of the mines was made. Mayor Weeden represented the "Air Way Mill"—a new ore crushing machine which he and a group of Menlo Park business men are manufacturing.

Mrs. Catherine Derry has returned to her home on Pine street after a visit with relatives in San Francisco.

The American Legion Post and its auxiliary will give another of their delightful card parties in the Central school auditorium on Friday night, February 24. Score cards 25 cents.

Raymond Lancaster, who was painfully burned last week when he fell while carry a can of gasoline, is recovering. The liquid saturated him and flames from a lion-fire ignited it making of him a human torch.

Mayor W. H. Weeden has resigned as head of the Menlo Park Unemployment Relief Committee and William K. White, retired attorney and capitalist, has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. White has a beautiful estate on Oak Grove avenue and has resided in Menlo Park for the past five years. He is just the man to continue the good work inaugurated by Mr. Weeden. Mr. White is to devote much of his time to the duties of the office. Mrs. Devol at a recent meeting paid a neat tribute to the able work done by Mr. Weeden who is to co-operate with the committee.

The administration of the relief bonds was explained to the Menlo Park committee Monday night by J. B. Howell, chairman of the county organization. At his suggestion, the committee voted to combine its general fund and its emergency relief fund, which have heretofore been handled separately. The Red Cross was authorized to sign emergency food orders drawing on this fund.

Mrs. F. R. Stowe was persuaded to reconsider her resignation as chairmen of the investigating subcommittee. Additional help was promised to relieve her of some of the burden. Two hundred families in the community are now on the list of applicants for work, she reported; most of these are in need of help.

A contribution of $20 a month for the remainder of the school year to the Menlo Park relief fund has been pledged by teachers in the Sequoia Union High School, the committee was told. This brings the monthly pledges up to $188.

Improvement of Hermosa way by laying of a strip pavement would cost approximately $4,170, or $1.08 a front foot, according to a revised preliminary report presented by City Engineer Bert J. Mehl to the city council here Tuesday.

The estimate was prepared at the request of Hermosa way property owners, and copies are to be prepared for their consideration of possible street improvement work there.

Further discussion of the purchase of insurance for the automobile of Police Chief Frank Love was engaged in by members of the council, but no action was determined upon. An investigation of the compensation that should be paid the chief of police for the use of his car is to be made. In the meantime, Chief Love reiterated, he will not use his machine for chasing speeders unless it is covered by insurance.

City Treasurer J. William Ryan was directed by the council to pay $76.75 in penalty interest on two Stanford Park improvement district bonds, whose redemption was delayed last year because of tax delinquencies.

E. C. Thoits of Palo Alto was given permission to move his residence from 285 Hamilton avenue, Palo Alto, to a new location in Stanford Park, subject to regulations approved by the city building inspector.

A protest by W. E. Bidwell against cracks in the pavement of Johnson avenue was turned over to City Engineer Mehl for action. Mehl reported that the cracks had occurred along the edges of the former gravel surfacing of the street.

On the motion of Councilman E. J. Crane the business license required of dry goods stores in the city was ordered reduced from $5 to $2.50 a quarter.

The road between Colfax and Iowa Hill is closed intermittently on account of construction work now in progress. Some turns are being widened. No definite times are set for the closed periods.
